NCSLA 2014 Annual Conference Presents

“Starting with the Basics: Simplifying the State Label Approval Process”

2014 is a special year for NCSLA as they celebrate the 80th anniversary of the National Conference of State Liquor Administrators in San Antonio at the annual conference, June 16-20, 2014. Serving as conference host is the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission and Administrator Sherry Cook.

The annual conference theme is “NCSLA – 80 Years: Just Getting Started.” Over the course of four days the business agenda will cover a number of complex and diverse issues that have evolved over the decades.

State budgets continue to decrease, while at the same time industry members are producing new brands and brand extensions at rates greater than ever seen before. The resulting impact on state label approvals is to be expected – there are increasing delays in obtaining such approvals and the costs of complying with and administering the requirements continue to rise. Join this panel on Friday, June 20, as they go back to the basics and ask why there are brand/label approval requirements, review the different approaches taken by states above and beyond the federal COLA requirement, and debate the resulting benefits and burdens. The take-away will be a recommendation from the panel on how to reduce complexities and costs in the label approval process that can be a win/win for regulators and the industry. Don't miss it!

Mr. Chris Wittman, Assistant General Counsel-Commercial of MillerCoors will moderate the discussion of these experienced, qualified panelists: Damon Larry, Assistant Bureau Chief, Florida Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco; K. Renee Cowick, Chief Counsel, North Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission; Deborah Ringo, Senior Regulatory Manager, Diageo North America; and Kimberly Frost, Shareholder, Martin, Frost & Hill, P.C.
